

Congressman Pence recently met with Austin Apple of Middletown. Austin, who attends Shenandoah High School, is working as a Congressional page this summer in Washington. Austin is active in cross country, track, football, and student government.

